Dear Parents,

This is to bring to your kind notice that the Academic Olympiads shall be held through online mode during the Academic Session 2020-21. Students may appear for the mentioned examinations from their homes.

Interested Students may register by visiting <http://www.sofworld.org/online-registrations>.

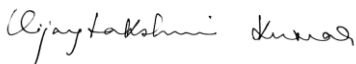

Our dedicated SOF School Code is WB0710.

School shall be organizing special classes during weekend for imparting training on Science, Mathematics and English Olympiads to the registered students. Therefore, parents are requested to drop in a mail to the respective class teachers confirming the registration of their ward for SOF Olympiads. The mail must entail Name, Class, Section and Subject of the child along with date of examination.

Wishing good luck to the students.

With Warm regards,

For Asian International School

Principal
